七転び八起き

Nana korobi yaoki.

Fall seven times. Rise eight.

Dear reader,

RISE8 was founded on a simple premise drawn from an old Japanese proverb: no matter how many times you fall, you always get back up — one more time.

Extended-stay hospitality has been underserved by owners who fragment acquisition, development, financing, management, and brand across misaligned stakeholders.

We built RISE8 to change that. A single platform controlling the full value chain, aligned around one thesis: excellent operations compound.
